Bible Study Worksheet

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES
LUKE 6:27-36

Key Verse

"Do for others just what you want them to do for you."

Luke 6:31 (GNT)

Observations

- What does Jesus say we should do for our enemies?
- How does Jesus challenge us to act differently than the world does?
- What example does God set for us when it comes to loving others?

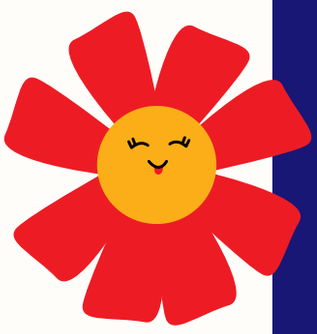

Group Activity

Pair up with a partner and brainstorm ways to show kindness to someone you find difficult, like a classmate, sibling, or friend. Share your ideas with the group and challenge each other to act on one this week.

Reflection Questions

1. What is God teaching you through this passage?
2. Why do you think Jesus asks us to love our enemies?
3. What does it look like to “do good to those who hate you” in your life?
4. How does following Jesus' teaching on love make you different from others?

Application: Bringing it home

How can you apply what you learned today in your life?

- Loving Like Jesus: Jesus calls us to love in a way that goes beyond what's easy or comfortable. Is there someone in your life whom you struggle to love? How can you start showing them kindness, even if they don't deserve it?
- Living the Golden Rule: Think of a situation where you could practice the golden rule by treating someone the way you'd want to be treated. How can you live out this command in your school, family, or friendships?

Fun Fact

Did you know that Jesus' command to love your enemies was revolutionary in His time? Most people believed in getting even or only being kind to those who were kind to them. But Jesus taught a new way of living—based on mercy, forgiveness, and love for all.

Action Step

1. Write down one specific way you can show love to someone who has been difficult to love. Pray for the courage to follow through, and ask a friend or mentor to check in with you about how it went.

2. Write a prayer based on what you've learned:
