Jesus said, "If you, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

A woman in the crowd called out, "Blessed is the mother who gave You birth and nursed You," and Jesus replied, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it."

Some accused Jesus of casting out demons by the power of Beelzebul, to which Jesus responded, "A house divided against itself cannot stand."

Jesus taught them the Lord's Prayer, saying, "When you pray, say: 'Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom comes. Give us each day our daily bread.'"

Jesus explained that if He cast out demons by the finger of God, it meant the kingdom of God had come upon them.

Jesus told a parable about a friend who persistently asks for bread at midnight, saying, "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you."
