Jesus warned, "No one can serve two masters. You cannot serve both God and money."

Jesus said, "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much."

Jesus taught that the Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John, and now the good news of the kingdom of God is preached. "It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law."

Jesus told His disciples the parable of the shrewd manager, where a manager was accused of wasting his master's possessions and was about to lose his job.

Jesus told the parable of the rich man and Lazarus: Lazarus, a poor beggar covered in sores, longed to eat what fell from the rich man's table, while the rich man lived in luxury.

Jesus taught, "Use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings."
