Jesus said, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

As Jesus approached Jerusalem and saw the city, He wept over it and said, "If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes."

When Jesus entered the temple courts, He began to drive out those who were selling, saying, "It is written: 'My house will be a house of prayer'; but you have made it 'a den of robbers.'"

Zacchaeus was short, so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see Jesus, since He was coming that way.

Jesus instructed them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here."

They shouted, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"
