Mary gave birth to her firstborn son, wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn.

An angel of the Lord appeared to shepherds in the fields, announcing the good news of the Savior's birth.

Mary treasured up all these things in her heart, and the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for what they had seen and heard.

Joseph and Mary traveled to Bethlehem because of a decree from Caesar Augustus that required a census to be taken.

A heavenly host of angels praised God, saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom He is pleased!"

The shepherds hurried to Bethlehem, found Mary, Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger, and shared what the angel had told them.
