A servant girl saw Peter and said, “This man was with Him.” But Peter denied it, saying, “Woman, I don’t know Him.”

Jesus went out as usual to the Mount of Olives, and His disciples followed Him. He told them, “Pray that you will not fall into temptation.”

Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, who was one of the Twelve. He went to the chief priests and officers of the temple guard and discussed how he might betray Jesus to them.

In the same way, after the supper, He took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you.”

Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover.”

Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is My body given for you; do this in remembrance of Me.”
