"Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; He has risen! Remember how He told you, while He was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified, and on the third day be raised again.'"

While the disciples were still talking, Jesus Himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

That same day, two of Jesus' followers were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. Jesus Himself came up and walked along with them.

The women found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

Then they worshiped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy.

He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms."
