The Holy Spirit descended on Jesus in the form of a dove, and a voice from heaven said, "You are My beloved Son; with You I am well pleased."

John rebuked Herod the tetrarch for his sins, including taking his brother's wife, which led to John being imprisoned.

Jesus came to the Jordan to be baptized by John, and as He was praying, the heavens opened.

John the Baptist began preaching in the wilderness, calling people to repentance and baptizing them in the Jordan River.

John quoted the prophet Isaiah, saying, "Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight."

Crowds came to John asking what they should do, and he told them to share with those in need, be honest, and live righteously.
