In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus read from Isaiah, proclaiming, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me," and declared that the prophecy was fulfilled in Him.

The devil tempted Jesus to turn stones into bread, but Jesus replied, "Man shall not live by bread alone."

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, was led into the wilderness, where He fasted for forty days and was tempted by the devil.

The devil took Jesus to the pinnacle of the temple and told Him to throw Himself down, but Jesus said, "You shall not put the Lord your God to the test."

The devil showed Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and offered them to Him if He would worship him, but Jesus said, "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve."

After overcoming the temptations, Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and His teaching gained great attention.
