ARRANGE THE STORY IN THE CORRECT ORDER ACCORDING TO LUKE 6

Jesus told them to love their enemies, do good to those who hate them, and to turn the other cheek when struck.

Jesus concluded with the parable of the wise and foolish builders, emphasizing the importance of hearing His words and acting on them.

Jesus warned against judging others and taught that each tree is known by its fruit, saying, "Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks."

Jesus taught a great crowd of people, delivering what is known as the "Sermon on the Plain," where He proclaimed blessings for the poor, hungry, and persecuted, and woes for the rich, satisfied, and laughing.

Jesus asked, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the Sabbath?" and then healed the man, leaving the Pharisees furious.

Jesus responded to the Pharisees by reminding them of how David ate the consecrated bread and declared, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."
