Jesus fed five thousand people with five loaves of bread and two fish after telling His disciples to give the crowd something to eat.

Jesus took Peter, James, and John up a mountain to pray, and His appearance changed, with His face shining and His clothes becoming dazzling white.

Jesus taught His disciples that the greatest among them is the one who is least and serves others, saying, "Whoever receives this child in My name receives Me."

Jesus sent out the twelve disciples, giving them power and authority to drive out demons, heal diseases, and proclaim the kingdom of God.

Jesus predicted His death and resurrection, saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, be rejected, and be killed, and on the third day be raised."

Jesus said, "If anyone would come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow Me."
